Things to bring to your neuropsychology appointment

- Photo identification (e.g. driver's license)
- Payment in cash or check (made to Neuropsychology Specialists, PLLC). You can also pay with credit card onsite.
- Lunch or snack. We have a refrigerator for storage if you need it.
- Copies of any medical records related to your current concerns or illness (e.g. brain scans, medical notes, prior evaluations, school records)
- Completed forms within this message. You may also access these forms through the "Forms" tab on our website (www.neuropsych-specialists.com)
- Hearing aids or reading glasses, if applicable
- Any routine medications you need for the day can be taken.
 - If this is an ADHD evaluation, we prefer that you NOT take your ADHD medication on the day of the evaluation since it can affect cognitive test performance, but please check with your doctor first.

Please try to get a good night's rest the night before the evaluation.

Please avoid alcohol and illicit drugs at least 24 hours prior to the evaluation.
